Fantasy
on Swedish National Melodies

Källkritisk utgåva av/Critical edition by Anders Wiklund

Levande musikarv och Kungl. Musikaliska Akademien

Syftet med Levande musikarv är att tillgängliggöra den dolda svenska musikskatten och göra den till en självklar del av dagens repertoar och forskning. Detta sker genom notutgåvor av musik som inte längre är skyddad av upphovsrätten, samt texter om tonsättarna och deras verk. Texterna publiceras i projektets databas på internet, liksom fritt nedladdningsbara notutgåvor. Huvudman är Kungl. Musikaliska Akademien i samarbete med Musik- och teaterbiblioteket och Svensk Musik.

Kungl. Musikaliska Akademien grundades 1771 av Gustav III med ändamålet att främja tonkonsten och musiklivet i Sverige. Numera är akademien en fristående institution som förenar tradition med ett aktivt engagemang i dagens och morgondagens musikliv.

Swedish Musical Heritage and The Royal Swedish Academy of Music

The purpose of Swedish Musical Heritage is to make accessible forgotten gems of Swedish music and make them a natural feature of the contemporary repertoire and musicology. This it does through editions of sheet music that is no longer protected by copyright, and texts about the composers and their works. This material is available in the project's online database, where the sheet music can be freely downloaded. The project is run under the auspices of the Royal Swedish Academy of Music in association with the Music and Theatre Library of Sweden and Svensk Musik.

The Royal Swedish Academy of Music was founded in 1771 by King Gustav III in order to promote the composition and performance of music in Sweden. Today, the academy is an autonomous institution that combines tradition with active engagement in the contemporary and future music scene.

The score consists of two systems of music. System 1 (Measures 1-2) features woodwind entries from Flute I/II, Clarinet I/II, Clarinet III, Horn I-II/II bas., Trombone I-II, and Kentn. These entries are punctuated by sustained notes from Bassoon I/II and Trombones. System 2 (Measures 3-4) begins with a dynamic of pp. Measures 3-4 show a rhythmic pattern of eighth-note pairs in the woodwinds and sustained notes in the brass. Measures 5-6 show a continuation of this pattern with a dynamic of pp. Measures 7-8 show a return to the woodwind entries from System 1. Measures 9-10 conclude with sustained notes from Bassoon I/II and Trombones.

Bernhard Crusell

Att Bernhard Crusell (1775–1838) kommit att förknippas med klarinetten är ingenting att förvåna sig över. Han var en av sin tids främsta klarinettister och komponerade för instrumentet konsertanta verk som fick utländska förläggare. Dessutom var han en av de första företrädarna för den svenska romanskonsten, och ett av hans mest populära verk var sångspelet Den lilla slavinnan.

Crusell föddes i Nystad i Finland, som då var en del av Sverige. Uppväxten var fattig (fadern var bokbindare) och det omöjliggjorde skolgång. Däremot lärde han sig spela klarinett hos en militärmusiker vid Nylands regemente, och tolv år gammal blev han volontärmusiker placerad på Sveaborg utanför Helsingfors. Banan som militärmusiker fortsatte vid flytten till Stockholm 1791, men två år senare blev han klarinettist i Kungl. Hovkapellet – en plats han behöll ända till 1833. Georg Joseph Vogler, som ledde Hovkapellet, gav honom undervisning i komposition.

Två utlandsvistelser blev viktiga för hans musikaliska utveckling på sitt instrument. 1798 fick han sin första egentliga undervisning i klarinettspel av Franz Tausch i Berlin. 1803 blev han inbjuden till Paris av Jean-François de Bourgoing, franskt sändebud i Stockholm, och under den halvårlånga vistelsen fick han undervisning i komposition av Henri Montan Berton och François Gossec.

Anknytningen till militärmusiken kvarstod: 1819 utnämndes han till ledare för militärmusiken i Linköping, där han sommartid ledde musikkåren. I den tjänsten stannade han till 1836.

Som tonsättare stod klarinetten i centrum för hans störst upplagda verk. Tre klarinettkonserter finns bevarade (i Ess-dur, f-moll och B-dur), men ett första solistiskt verk var variationer över Åhlströms visa "Goda gosse glaset töm" – framfört 1804 men utgett i reviderad form 1829 som Introduction et Air Suèdois varié. Ett av hans mest uppskattade verk är Concertante för klarinett, horn, fagott och orkester, uruppfört 1808. Också i verk av det mindre formatet hade klarinetten en framskjuten position, så i tre kvartetter för klarinett, violin, viola och cello.

Att Crusell genom Hovkapellet fick en stark relation till operakonsten speglas i sångproduktionen, inte minst i de möjligheter till replikväxlingar som uppstår då fler än en sångare medverkar. En särställning intar hans sånger ur Esaias Tegnér's Frithiofs saga, som fick stor spridning inte bara i Sverige, utan också i utgåvor på danska och tyska. Det var genom att bli upptagen i sällskapet Par Bricole som Crusell stimulerades i sitt komponerande av vokalmusik, vilket också märks i en rad verk för manskört. Sångspelet Den lilla slavinnan är en annan utlöpa av detta intresse, uppfört första gången 1824 och därefter framfört både på andra håll i Sverige och i Finland.

Stilistiskt ansluter Crusell till den klassicism som var framträdande under decennierna kring år 1800, men tidigt öppnar sig hans musik också för en gryende romantik (som i den andra klarinettkonserten från 1815). Som ytterligare exempel på hans receptivitet kan nämnas att han också översatte tio operor till svenska. 1801 blev han ledamot av Kungl. Musikaliska akademien.

Bernhard Crusell

"The name of Bernhard Crusell (1775–1838) remains firmly linked with the clarinet. There is nothing surprising about this: Crusell was one of the outstanding clarinettists of his time, composing many virtuoso pieces for the instrument which were distributed by a number of foreign publishers. At the same time, he was one of the first exponents of the Swedish art song (romans), and one of his most popular works was the comic opera, Den lilla slavinnan ('The Little Slavegirl').

Crusell was born in Nystad in Finland, then a part of Sweden. His childhood was sufficiently poor (his father was a book-binder) that he was unable to attend school. However, he managed to learn the clarinet by taking lessons with a military musician from the Nylund regiment, and at twelve he signed up for voluntary service as a musician, stationed in Sveaborg outside Helsinki. His career as a military musician took him to Stockholm in 1791, where two years later he became clarinettist in the Kungliga Hovkapellet (the Royal Court Orchestra) – a position he held until 1833. Georg Joseph Vogler, then director of the Hovkapellet, provided Crusell with tuition in composition.

Two foreign journeys gained a particular importance for Crusell's musical development. In 1798 he received his first real tuition on the clarinet from Franz Tausch in Berlin. In 1803 he was invited to Paris by Jean-François de Bourgoing, a French emissary to Stockholm, and under a six-month stay in the French capital he received composition tuition from Henri Montan Berton and François Gossec.

In the meantime, Crusell's musical military connections remained. In 1819 he was appointed director of military music in Linköping. He led the regimental band during the summer months and remained in the post until 1836.

The clarinet occupied a central position for most of his main compositions, including three extant clarinet concertos (in E-flat major, F minor and B-flat major). His first piece for clarinet solo, however, was a set of variations on Åhlström's song 'Goda gosse glaset töm' ('Good lad, drain your glass') – performed first in 1804 and later published in revised form in 1829 as Introduction et Air Suèdois varié. One of his most successful pieces is the Concertante for clarinet, horn, bassoon, and orchestra, given its premiere in 1808. He also had much success with smaller format works for clarinet, such as three quartets for clarinet, violin, viola and cello.

Through the Hovkapellet Crusell formed a strong stylistic connection to opera, which is reflected in his song compositions, not the least in the songs in two or more parts where the composer makes much of the opportunity for dialogue between voices. A special position among his songs is occupied by the settings from Esaias Tegnér's Frithiofs saga, which was widely circulated not merely in Sweden but also through published scores in Danish and German. Through his membership of the Par Bricole society, Crusell received a new aesthetic impetus in his composition of vocal music, a quality which can also be observed in a number of works for male chorus. The comic opera Den lilla slavinnan is another expression of this. The piece received its premiere in Stockholm in 1824. Further performances followed both elsewhere in Sweden and in Finland.

Crusell's music is connected to the classical style which predominated during the decades surrounding 1800. From early on, however, he was also receptive to a nascent romanticism (heard for example in the second clarinet concerto of 1815). His general artistic flexibility is also attested to by the fact that he translated ten operas into Swedish. In 1801 he became a member of the Kungliga Musikaliska akademien (Royal Academy of Music).

Fantasi över svenska nationalmelodier

Utöver sin tjänstgöring vid Kungl. Teatern har många hovkapellister verkat inom militära musikkårer runt om i landet. Bernhard Crusell är inget undantag: han ledde musikkårerna vid Första och Andra livgrenadjärregementet i Linköping som musikdirektör 1818–38, och komponerandet av såväl instrumental som vokal musik för regementsmusiken var ett naturligt inslag i hans musikskapande. Crusell var förtrogen med harmonimusik alltsedan sina år på Sveaborg under 1700-talets senare del, när sådan hade hunnit etableras vid flera svenska regementen. Flera inslag i hans resedagböcker visar att han hyste ett genuint och positivt intresse för blåsarmusik.

Fantasi över svenska nationalmelodier hör till Crusells större verk för regementsmusikkårerna i Linköping, uruppförd den 11 september 1836 som sista nummer under en så kallad Crusell-konsert i S:t Larskyrkan med ca 900 åhörare, recenserad i Linköpings-Bladet den 14 september 1836. Vid sina tidigare konserter hade Crusell presenterat ”Schweiziska, Italienska och Fransyska” melodier: Airs suisses (1832?) och Potpourri über italienische und französische Melodien (1835). Ett av många potpourrier över Bellmans sånger är också tillskrivet Crusell. ”Ett potpourri på Swenska melodier, arrangeradt och componeradt af B. Crusell skulle icke förfela sin goda werkan” hade en skribent i Linköpings-Bladet påpekat efter 1835 års konsert (den 16:e september). Som ”nationella” räknades på Crusells tid inte enbart folkvisor utan också omtyckta svenska musikstycken mer allmänt.

På inledningens Andante maestoso, med viss prägel av konsertuvertyr, följer en enkel mollmelodi, Jämtlandsvisan, med tre variationer. Stjernsången av Tegnér och Sjögren, känd bland studentsångare, utgör så en lugn mellandel. På en modulerande överledning med motiviskt arbete följer en Polska, ”Klang min vackra bjällra”, som med episodiska infall och motiv från de olika temana bildar en livfull finale. ”I synnerhet framlockade den lyckade finalen en allmän glädttighet i de respective åhörarnas blickar” skrev Linköpings-Bladets recensent. Ett visst motiviskt släktskap hos melodierna bidrar till enhetlighet i kompositionen. Tema med variationer efter inledningen och motiviskt arbete är utmärkande för tidens fantasi- och potpurrikomponerande.

Besättning med ”tersflöjt” i Ess, F- och B-klarinetter och fagotter, naturhorn och naturtrumpeter, klaffinstrumenten kenthorn och bashorn, den sedvanliga trion alt- tenor- och basbasun (-trombon) jämte serpent samt slagverk var typisk för dåtidens infanterimusikkårer och bar internationell prägel. Detta var dock något som var på väg att förändras genom införandet av bleckblåsinstrument med ventiler, vilket skulle medföra nya nationella idiom och klinger. Även sedan musikkårernas instrumentation ändrats levde Crusells Fantasi vidare i arrangemang, till exempel för blåsoktett (militäroktett) där man lätt esskornett, tenorbasun och bastuba överlämnat kenthornets, fagottens och serpentens roller. Gunnar Johansson har gjort ett arrangemang för symfonisk blåsorkester. Ånnu år 2020 föreligger ingen inspelning av Crusells original.

Fantasy on Swedish National Melodies

In addition to their service at the Royal Swedish Opera, many Royal Court Orchestra musicians have served with Swedish regimental bands. Bernhard Crusell is no exception: he led the bands of the 1st and 2nd Life Grenadier Regiments in Linköping as bandmaster (Swed. musikdirektör) 1818–38, and composing both instrumental and vocal music for the regiments was a natural part of his music productivity. Crusell had been familiar with Harmoniemusik since his days at the fortress Sveaborg during the late 18th century, a period when instrumental wind ensembles had been established with many of the Swedish regiments. Notes in his travel diaries reveal his genuine and positive interest in wind music.

The Fantasi över svenska nationalmelodier (Fantasy on Swedish National Melodies) is one of Crusell's larger works for the Life Grenadier Regiments. It was premiered on 11 September 1836 as the last piece on a so-called Crusell concert performed at St. Lars Church before an audience of ca 900 and was reviewed in the newspaper Linköpings-Bladet 14 September 1836. Crusell had presented ‘Swiss, Italian and French’ melodies at previous concerts: Airs suisses (1832?) and Potpourri über italienische und französische Melodien (1835). One of the many potpourris based on Bellman's songs has also been attributed to Crusell. ‘A potpourri on Swedish melodies, arranged and composed by B. Crusell should not fail to give a good impression’ wrote a reviewer in Linköpings-Bladet after a concert on 16 September 1835. During Crusell's time, not only folk songs but popular Swedish pieces in general were considered ‘national’.

The opening Andante maestoso, having a certain touch of a concert overture, is followed by a simple minor melody, Jämtlandsvisan, with three variations. Tegnér's and Sjögren's Stjernsången, familiar to male student choirs, constitutes a calm middle section. A modulating transition with thematic development is followed by the polska Klang min vackra bjällra, creating a lively finale of episodic whims and motifs from the different themes. ‘In particular the successful finale elicited a general cheerfulness in the eyes of the audience’, wrote the reviewer from Linköpings-Bladet. A certain motivic kinship between the melodies contributes to the unity of the composition. A Theme and variations following the introduction, in addition to motivic development, are peculiar to the fantasy and potpourri compositional techniques of the early nineteenth century.

Scoring for transverse flute in E-flat, F and B-flat clarinets, bassoons, natural horns, natural trumpets, keyed bugles and bass horns, the usual trio of alto, tenor and bass trombone, serpent and percussion was typical for infantry bands during this period and had international character. However, this was soon to change with the introduction of valved brass instruments, leading to new national idioms and timbres. Even after the instrumentation of wind ensembles had changed, Crusell's Fantasi lived on in arrangements, for example for wind octet (military octet) in which the E-flat Swedish kornett, tenor valve trombone and bass tuba replaced the keyed bugle, bassoon and serpent. Gunnar Johansson has made an arrangement for symphonic wind orchestra. As of 2020, no recording currently exists with Crusell's original instrumentation.
